

FRONT-END DEVELOPER (M/W)

Mackevision Medien Design GmbH is one of the world market leaders in Computer Generated Imagery (CGI), including 3D visualization, animation and visual effects. Mackevision was founded in 1994 and has been part of Accenture Interactive since 2018. The company designs and produces high-end image and film material as well as interactive applications, develops technology solutions for image generation and accompanies the entire CGI process from data preparation to creative design.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Development of new user-facing features
- Creation of reusable codes and libraries
- Ensuring the technical feasibility of UI / UX designs
- Application optimization for maximum speed and scalability
- Ensure validation of all user input before it is passed to the back end
- Working with other team members and stakeholders

QUALIFICATIONS

- Professional understanding of HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript (ES 6+), TypeScript, Git
- Experience in dealing with cross-browser compatibility issues, Web application debugging, and Performance Optimization
- Basic understanding of CSS pre-processing tools such as LESS and SASS
- Extensive knowledge of JavaScript libraries and frameworks such as Angular, ReactJS or VueJS
- Good understanding of single-page apps and websocket communication
- Dealing with SEO principles and their application
- Experience with WebGL Web applications a plus

INTERESTED?

Then please send us your complete application documents, including salary expectations and starting date, per e-mail: to: tiffany.vanbeek@mackevision.com

CONTACT

Tiffany Van Beek
Human Resources
T +49 0151 195 666 43
Tiffany.vanbeek@mackevision.com

FACTS

Position: Full-time
Location: Warwick
Start: ASAP